Life Progressions

We are born into an existing progression of change, through which we evolve and grow during our lifetime. Being conscious of our position in this succession of change helps us more clearly define and understand ourselves. An awareness of our current life situation relative to a larger, evolving chain of events helps us negotiate the challenges that confront us in our daily lives.

This Life Progression report (based on the technique of Secondary progressions) describes experiences and understandings relative to particular aspects, thus depicting the effect of these planetary aspects on an individual. The report covers a period of at least one year. The time period covered by the text varies according to the nature of the astrological event associated with each paragraph. A paragraph referring to a progressed Moon will cover a much shorter period than one referring to the zodiacal sign on a progressed house cusp. This report is intended to enhance the natal chart, not to replace it. The two go hand-in-hand. The progressed chart brings to fruition the promises of the natal chart.

Report for Barak Obama
Your Life Progressions for Mar 1, 2008*Sagittarius on the First Cusp

Others in your immediate circle are finding you easier to communicate with as your deep moods of intensity lessen. You are gradually becoming more free-spirited and open in your attitude. A former preoccupation, possibly with sex, may give way to new interests. Sports, education, or travel dominates your attention or soon will. Your new gregarious nature will draw more friends into your life. Many will be of different backgrounds, race, or nationalities. Enhancing future goals may instigate a closer look at changing vocational interests. The printing or publishing industry or large-scale communications may hold an interest. The airlines, travel agencies, or computers are another outlet. In-laws, foreigners, individuals residing in distant cities, law-enforcement agencies and legal or religious matters may play an active role in the near future. Guard the hip area against possible injury to muscles or joints. The condition of your progressed ascendant ruler, Jupiter, can provide additional insight into new circumstances and motivational influences touching your life at this time.

Saturn in the First House

A personality change may occur in anyone who, during the formative years, has progressed Saturn entering the progressed first house. Youth finds it difficult to handle the restrictive and delaying elements of this placement. As a result, one may rebel against what they feel are unnecessary hindrances and undue responsibilities. Some may become belligerent against those in authority whom they feel are bearing down too heavily on them. A serious state of mind or mental depression and a lack of self-confidence may be present. Constant encouragement and praise in their accomplishments (no matter how minor), coupled with lots of affection, can help to smooth these difficult times. Braces on the teeth, skin problems, or correction of the bony structure of the body often accompany this placement. Should Saturn progress to the first house during adult years, there is a readiness for assuming responsibilities. Organizing ability is enhanced. Others recognize your strength and endurance in handling difficult tasks. As a result, you may be placed in a supervisory position. The government, political parties, or individuals of rank and authority, a parent, or an older individual will have a long-range influence upon your life. Soup and hot beverages can do wonders in warding off chills and colds during the change of seasons.

Capricorn on the Second Cusp

You will not take unnecessary risks involving business or finance like you have in the past. Your mind is shrewd, sound, and cautious. Ambition and initiative will increase where money is concerned. You are striving for the personal security it can offer. You have the capacity to work hard and hold responsible positions. Resentment sets in when you are not paid what you feel you are worth. At times it appears you have to work longer and harder for the same benefits that others obtain with less effort. While earnings may be slow at first, persistence will pay off in the end. A parent or an authoritative figure will be your best benefactor for financial gain.

Moon in Aquarius

You may find yourself expressing deep concern for other people's problems and a readiness to assist them, if necessary. Your understanding and sympathetic nature has a humanitarian overtone. There is an eagerness to develop new friendships and participate in group-related activities. You may decide at this time to start or join an organization. You may feel there is a need for new outlets in your life or a complete change of direction -- a surge of personal independence to do something unique and different. If your activities have been suppressed or restricted, you may have to guard against going to the extreme and seeking the unconventional, perhaps later regretting this break from concrete ties. It will be difficult to maintain a normal, routine existence for many unexpected events and happenings will break up the usual pattern of your life. Friends, daughter- or son-in-laws, and other people's children will either assist you or create emotional disturbances. The most vulnerable health areas are the circulatory system and muscle spasm in the calf. Note the house position of your progressed Moon to determine the area of life in which the element of the unexpected is likely to occur.

Moon in the Second House

Personal finances and movable possessions play an important role in the scheme of daily activities. The purchase of major items must be weighed against affordability. You may be forced to view your finances with an objective outlook. Determine where and how to increase personal savings and, at the same time, alter poor spending habits. This can be an emotional period in connection with monetary affairs. You may feel a threatening loss of security when finances fluctuate and bills are overdue. The motivational influences most likely to reflect on finances are revealed by the sign position of your progressed Moon.

Moon Conjunction Jupiter (Prg-Nat) Jan 20, 2008

Lady luck smiles at you during this three-month period, making this a progressive and prosperous time for material or financial gain. Put new ideas or plans into action, seek new positions, or ask for a raise. Consider the idea of new studies for expanding the mentality. Travel if you possibly can, and open the door to new friendships and acquaintances. All things considered, this should be a happy, peaceful, and healthy time of your life.

Moon Quincunx Venus (Prg-Nat) Feb 5, 2008

This could be a fun time socially, but much depends upon the effort you put forth into motivating and influencing others. They are apt to rely too much on your personal energy and expertise in the planning of social gatherings. You may feel burdened with too many of the details so necessary for a successful function. Some adjustment or adaptation to new routines, or a relinquishment of a personal interest, may be necessary to maintain peace and harmony.

Moon Opposition Mercury (Prg-Nat) Feb 13, 2008

You may be faced with an important decision during the coming months. As long as you don't overreach yourself and are cautious with written or verbal agreements, you should not have any real problems. Disputes can be avoided if you don't jump to conclusions and if you apply discretion in all you say or do. Moderation is the theme word in all confrontations. There may be a change of plans, requiring a compromise. Avoid traveling more than necessary. Brothers, sisters, and close kin may be a source of concern or aggravation.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Mars (Prg-Nat) Jul 2, 2008

Impulsive decisions or hasty actions can lead to possible accidents or quarrels with loved ones. Abrupt statements made at this time are likely to be cause for regret later. Don't push for important changes or take unnecessary risks. Work out this excessive energy through repairing, painting, or completion of difficult tasks. Be aware that certain risks are involved. Use caution in new undertakings or ventures.

Moon Square Neptune (Prg-Nat) Aug 1, 2008

You may feel an urgency to temporarily escape from reality by seeking hidden places of isolation either physically or mentally. You may wish to escape from all the confusing elements that appear to be surrounding your environment at this time. You may have frightening or weird experiences with ghosts or possible contacts with past deceased individuals. Upsetting dreams or nightmares may cause sleepless nights. Be careful in dealings with others who, through some unusual influence, may try to deceive or drain you of your vitality and energy. Trying conditions or events can make this a sorrowful time, bringing you in touch with individuals who may be terribly ill and who may draw upon your impressionable and supersensitive sympathies.

Moon Trine Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Aug 10, 2008

This is a three-month period in which one should take advantage of all opportunities for advancement and positive career changes. You have great rapport with bosses, those in authority, and the general public. This is a good time to contact those who can help you rise to a higher social status. You may receive an award or recognition for a personal achievement, possibly get your name or photo in the local newspaper, or appear on television or radio.

Moon Square Neptune (Prg-Prg) Aug 24, 2008

You may feel an urgency to temporarily escape from reality by seeking hidden places of isolation either physically or mentally. You may wish to escape from all the confusing elements that appear to be surrounding your environment at this time. Trying conditions or events can make this a sorrowful time, bringing you in touch with individuals who may be terribly ill and who may draw upon your impressionable and supersensitive sympathies.

Moon Opposition Sun (Prg-Nat) Nov 1, 2008

You are entering a critical position in which trying conditions of anxiety and worry may be experienced. Changes are par for the course, resulting in a break-up of existing conditions or separation from close ties. Social activities may be at a standstill or prove to be a disappointment. Feelings and emotions are vulnerable and likely to suffer through loss of pride and dignity. The following three months are a time for major decisions and for recognizing the need for a new direction in life. You will have to clarify your goals and personal desires, and then take the necessary steps to set them in motion.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Sun (Prg-Prg) Nov 19, 2008

Physical stamina, vitality, and your general state of health may not be up to par. During the next few months all relationships are best kept at arm's length to avoid possible disputes or confrontations. This is not the time to push ahead in business or personal endeavors.

Obstacles and drawbacks are likely to hinder or impair potential opportunities.

Moon Semisquare Ascendant (Prg-Prg) Dec 13, 2008

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Venus (Prg-Nat) Feb 13, 2009

Do not place too much emphasis on events or relationships that surround your life during this trend. You can be easily hurt by placing stronger attachments to matters or individuals than is really there. Your feelings and emotions are liable to suffer by the thoughtless actions of another. Best to keep your emotions under control during this short duration, to avoid possible quarrels or separation from loved ones. There is also the possibility of some financial loss or setbacks.

Moon Square Ascendant (Prg-Nat) Mar 11, 2009

Emotional and domestic difficulties, especially where women are concerned. They are likely to be a source of irritation or interference with personal plans. This could result in a break-up of close emotional ties -- perhaps a separation from a loved one or parent. If running for public office, it would be wise to seek the counsel of someone experienced in public relations. Your own image will not project as well as you would prefer. A PR person can help to smooth the rough edges.

Moon Opposition Midheaven (Prg-Nat) Apr 28, 2009

There is an emotional pull between family responsibilities and career interests. You may have to find a way in which to blend the two areas together. Changes are likely to affect your immediate environment, through the possibility of moving or enlargement of your present home. Purchase or sale of property may also be given consideration.

Moon Quincunx Mars (Prg-Nat) Jul 9, 2009

These three months can yield constructive energy if applied wisely. You will be able to accomplish much in the way of hard work or the handling of difficult tasks. Be discreet with the opposite sex, and forego new attachments until this trend has passed. This is not the best time for travel, working with mechanical equipment, or machinery. Avoid excitement and overactivity, especially if you exercise.

Moon Trine Mars (Prg-Prg) Aug 1, 2009

The following three months can be a highly productive period if your energy flow is properly directed. Make positive use of all opportunities that come your way. Be ambitious and enterprising, and push personal affairs toward new ventures and undertakings. Be assertive in changing your life-style or environment if you feel hindered in your present situation. This is a good time to travel, purchase a new car, or tackle projects that require extra energy.

Moon Trine Mercury (Prg-Prg) Aug 14, 2009

Your mental energy is stimulated and flows with a positive influence. It should be easy at this time to learn and grasp more knowledge than usual -- to undertake, and pass, driving or written tests. This is a fortunate and successful period for all mental applications. Excellent for writing, handling of correspondence, and negotiations -- buying or selling of property and real estate. Be alert for new business opportunities. Favorable trends for traveling, and for affairs of siblings and other close relationships.

Moon Sesquiquadrate Midheaven (Prg-Prg) Sep 14, 2009

There is a possibility of undesirable changes in the domestic circle or through one's career. Emotional instability can push you into seeking an ultimatum from those you love the most. A new boss with whom you do not get along can cause emotional upsets. Affairs of grandparents or a parent may require your personal attention and concern. You may find yourself being drawn into the unpleasant task of resolving a family crisis. Parents can be quite demanding of your time and attention during this trend.

Moon Opposition Uranus (Prg-Nat) Sep 17, 2009

A rebellious spirit prevails which may instill a desire to break away from existing habits, routines, and customs. You may wish to replace established methods with new and improved ones. In some cases this may result in breaking up old ties while forming new, strange, and unconventional relationships. In your haste to bring about these changes, you can be met with much opposition and misunderstanding with close ties or family members. This is not the best time to force changes, make major decisions, travel, or sign important agreements. Be aware that possible accidents and peculiar experiences may be lurking around the corner.

Moon Opposition Uranus (Prg-Prg) Nov 28, 2009

This is not the best time to force changes, make major decisions, travel, or sign important agreements. Be aware that possible accidents and peculiar experiences may be lurking around the corner.

Moon Opposition Venus (Prg-Prg) Dec 1, 2009

You will have to be selective of close associations, friends, and the opposite sex during this short duration of three months. It can be a trying time for feelings and emotions, one that may call for a compromise and a yielding to the wishes of another to avoid a break-up or temporary separation. An emotional confrontation can result in hurt feelings, disappointments, or sorrow over what has been said or done. A possible disagreement over the handling of monetary or domestic affairs can create painful conflicts. It would be wise to avoid close contacts with women in general, until this trend has passed.

Moon Square Moon (Prg-Nat) Dec 19, 2009

Take preventive health measures and get a physical check-up, and encourage those in your immediate environment to do the same. Unfortunate changes can be disruptive and cause uncertainty in making important decisions. If you work with the general public or are campaigning for an election, you may be quite disappointed with the public's response. This is not the time to pursue personal or vocational advancements. Women in general and all close family relations may be a source of irritation or may be lacking in cooperation.

Moon Quincunx Sun (Prg-Prg) Dec 19, 2009

Safeguard your health, as there may be a noticeable change in your physical stamina. It may be due to a stressful and emotional condition involving the care or responsibility of another individual. Or you may be working extra hours at your place of employment, with lots of hard or detailed work. You will have to make some kind of adaptation or adjustments in your daily routine if you are to handle all that will be required of you. It is not necessary to tackle all the problems alone. Seek the assistance of others, even if you have to lower your pride a bit in the asking of their help.

Jupiter in the Second House

The element of luck prevails, sometimes at the last minute, just when an overdue bill begins to concern you. This type of protection can arrive through a forgotten dividend check, a bonus, winning a football pool, or at bingo. A stroke of luck always seems to protect you from financial stress. A strong sense of fairness in the handling of finances will draw respect from others. There is a disliking for underhanded tactics in monetary affairs, as "your cards are clearly on the table." It is possible that travel expenses may be covered by your place of employment or organization. Financial aid proves beneficial for those seeking to further their education. Published material, the printing industry, or teaching can also aid in possible financial increase. A lawsuits or seeking judgment against another is possible. In-laws, contacts with individuals in distant cities, foreigners, or people of different race, background, and creed are likely to have an effect upon your finances.

Aquarius on the Third Cusp

Your mental attitude is changing toward optimism and idealism. There are colorful expressions ingrained in your sense of humor. You love to watch the expression of others as you make shocking or unusual statements. New lines of thought connected with engineering, aviation, electronics, radio, television, computers, or radar may be part of your daily activities. Others may pursue the study of astrology, palmistry, and other occult subjects. It will be very difficult to maintain a regular routine in your everyday affairs as letters, phone calls, and short trips crop up unexpectedly and demand your attention. Clubs, organizations, and friends are likely to make inroads on your time. On some occasion, you may have to keep books or records for an organization. Complicated affairs are possible in connection with your brother or sister.

Aries on the Fourth Cusp

Circumstances are likely to occur in which you will have to take the lead in family matters and decisions. You (rather than your partner) are more apt to take personal control over the home base. During this trend, there may be tireless creative energy in the fixing, painting, and keeping of the home in excellent condition. Arguments can occur due to the bossy attitude of one member of the family. The sharing of a residence with the opposite sex is possible. This sign is associated with accidents or fires in the home, and surgery to one of the parents.

Taurus on the Fifth Cusp

It is possible you have a creative hobby that can be turned into a real moneymaker -- whether it is miniature doll house building, hair styling, giving music lessons, or cake decorating. Whatever it may be, look to the source for possible additional income. You have strong feelings when it comes to romance and are consistent in your affections. You have great pride in your child's accomplishments and like to endow them with personal comforts. When it comes to sports, you may be more of a watcher than a doer. You may be too cautious for investments. Your best bets would be individual retirement accounts, banks, or finance corporations. A child or your second oldest sibling may be a source of financial drain or gain.

Taurus on the Sixth Cusp

You have become more diligent and dogmatic in your work habits. You believe in a full day's work for a full day's pay and get quite angry when you see co-workers slacking off on the job. You require duties that do not call for change of shifts. It is difficult for your bodily functions and habits to adjust to different working hours every other week. You appear to be working harder now than in the past. As a result, you may relax too much in the evenings and overindulge in food, creating a potential problem of weight gains. This sign is associated with atmospheric conditions that may react on the throat.

Gemini on the Seventh Cusp

Intellectual gatherings, lectures, classes, short trips, or the communication field will introduce new individuals into your everyday affairs. Your marriage or business partner is starting to get restless and desirous of making personal changes. They may enroll in new studies or take up a new sport such as golf or racquetball. There is the possibility of joining forces with a brother or sister on a mutual venture or enterprise. Weddings of nieces and nephews will highlight your social life.

Cancer on the Eighth Cusp

Property and real estate come to mind during this trend. You may consider applying for a loan to purchase a home, or perhaps a second mortgage. Don't permit emotions to overrule good judgment when it comes to spending. Too many bills can leave you emotionally drained when there is a threat to your sense of security through possible loss of good credit rating. You have become very sensitive in sexual matters. You have learned from past mistakes, and will exercise caution until the other person reveals their intentions.

Venus in Leo

As your progressed Venus enters into the sign of Leo, there is a genuine desire to be more charming and pleasant. You may have more control over your emotions and not permit them to rule you as they have in the past. Others will begin to notice a certain entertaining and dramatic flair in your personality as you become more colorful in your expressions. Your popularity is enhanced and there is great rapport with the opposite sex. The affairs of children and young people will play an active role in your life. Associate with individuals of good social standing and superior positions, for they can prove advantageous to future aspirations.

Venus in the Eighth House

There appears to be a sensual quality about your appearance, coloring you with a fascinating personality. You can create quite a stir among the opposite sex. Take stock of your creative forces. You may have a specialized artistic talent that could provide a source for monetary gain. This is a good time to review and revise your insurance policy. Discover new ways to enhance and increase investment programs or add to your savings account. This placement is associated with financial gain through your marriage, business partner, or any cooperative monetary venture involving others. You will receive frequent gifts as well as social invitations for which your expenses are paid. A female may be a source of financial gain or drain in connection with mutual funds.

Venus Conjunction Uranus (Prg-Prg) Oct 14, 2009

Your affections and emotions are highly stimulated. You can be quite susceptible to the magnetic or hypnotic influence of others. You may find yourself being drawn to unusual or unconventional relationships. There is the possibility of separating from old ties and -- just as suddenly -- forming new ones. Finances are likely to fluctuate, producing periods of sudden gains and sudden losses. A good place to meet romantic attachments is through group-related activities and organizations. Unconventional or unorthodox methods may be introduced in your line of business.

Leo on the Ninth Cusp

If you have children, it would be wise to start a college savings program. One is sure to want the best in educational facilities. You may visit children living in distant cities or travel for pleasure (related to resorts, gambling, entertainers, and fan clubs). Legal matters are apt to involve affairs of children (for example, alimony or suing a young person who has no car insurance). It is also possible one of your children may become involved in a sticky legal issue.

Sun in Virgo

As your progressed Sun enters the sign of Virgo, you will notice certain psychological changes. A reserved, tactful, and conservative nature is slowly replacing a dramatic and flamboyant flair. There is an inclination to conduct your personal affairs in solitude and with greater privacy. You are curious about people, and there is a deeper analytical judgment of human nature. Possible career changes may require increased assimilation and evaluation of facts and figures. You take great pride in these detailed and methodical tasks that would have bored you in the past. Success comes from good common-sense methods and practical handling of business affairs. You are becoming more precise and selective of the foods you eat. Diet, personal hygiene, and exercise may become a daily routine. Co-workers, aunts and uncles, and men of discriminative taste will affect your life at various times.

Sun in the Ninth House

This is the house of personal protection, influence, and good fortune. Your lofty aspirations and desire for public recognition can be achieved through higher education. Creative talents are best expressed through wide-scale media. Working with radio, television, or publications can increase self-confidence and assist in bolstering your ego. Professional people of wealth and prominence, and those of vastly different backgrounds, are likely to touch upon your life. Men can be of valuable assistance by opening the door to opportunities for future gains and advancements. This placement is associated with travel or communications with those in distant cities, in-laws, and people involved with religion. Circumstances may bring you in touch with someone who is undergoing difficult legal action.

Sun Trine Jupiter (Prg-Prg) Mar 7, 2008

This influence has far-reaching potential that can help you obtain your desires and ambitions. A prosperous and successful period in which all things go exceedingly well. This is a good time to consider furthering your education delving deeper into religious affairs. Printing, publications, communications, and travel matters should prove rewarding at this time. Social contacts can be beneficial in helping you to attain your ambitions. Women are likely to form lasting and permanent relationships that may lead to marriage.

Sun Trine Moon (Prg-Nat) Dec 10, 2009

Unless other indications point differently this should be a smooth period in which all matters appear to be going well. One of the happiest times in one's life. New friends and attachments of a beneficial nature could be made. Social affairs are highlighted and possible recognition. Domestic, financial, or business affairs are progressing along favorable trends. New opportunities may increase chances for expansion and advancement...a period of general success and a positive frame of mind.

Uranus in the Ninth House

Your thoughts and ideas will operate through unique channels of expression, which may be considered unconventional or "way-out" by others. Furthering your education along new lines of endeavor will intrigue you. Courses dealing with astrology, computers, audio/video equipment, and other technical or scientific fields may be given serious consideration. Travel is likely to include groups of people (as with a guided tour) or involve large gatherings (such as conventions, seminars, or public lectures). Keep a small suitcase packed with important necessities for those quick and abrupt departures. An element of the unexpected surrounds phone messages, letters from distant places, and the affairs of in-laws.

Pluto in the Ninth House

As Pluto enters your progressed ninth house, it instills a restless urgency to enforce change, perhaps because you feel controlled or dominated by someone -- an educator, in-law, or other authoritative figure. You may drop out of college, change your major, move to a distant city, or even consider new religious affiliations. There is a strong desire for personal advancement -- this should be kept under control, for there is the possibility of overextending yourself financially, through heavy mortgage or credit payments. Legal action may be undertaken for bankruptcy or consolidation of bills. Relocating to a new city or area may not be the answer -- if your attitude of over-optimism still prevails, the same pattern is likely to repeat itself. There is the possibility of gain or financial assistance from in-laws or distant relatives.

Libra on the Tenth Cusp

You'll find it difficult to motivate yourself; therefore, a partner would be a good idea should you decide to go into business. In all likelihood, a woman will play a significant role in vocational assistance. There is a fine line between war and peace -- when you are certain an authoritative figure is not giving you a fair shake, you can drop your diplomatic manner and reveal a nasty bit of temper. In all probability, you may join forces or collaborate on a business project with a parent of your marriage partner.

Mercury in Libra

Your analytical and discriminative mentality is softened with a gracious warmth not in evidence before. As your Mercury progressing into the cooperative sign of Libra enhances your desire to work in unity with others, where formerly, you were content to work in self-induced isolation. In all probability, some new venture or pursuit is likely to draw you into the communication field. In this capacity, you may experience the exchange of ideas, thoughts, and views. It could range from teaching to public relations work. You may enter into a partnership connected with books, cassette or video tapes, lecturing, or teaching. The affairs of your marriage or business partner may require you to handle lots of paperwork or make frequent short trips. Siblings of your spouse or other close ties, and their affairs, may touch upon your life.

Mercury in the Tenth House

Your mental concentration and well-organized activities are the driving force behind your ambitions and aspirations. You have good logical thinking, with the ability to come straight to the point of any matter under discussion. Mental work or a good deal of short distance travels may be connected with your vocation. Lack of inner security may drive you to seek two positions simultaneously -- perhaps a part-time job that blends in with your full-time employment. A possible advancement may be offered with a contingent deal that additional study courses or technical training be undertaken to enable you to handle your new duties with confidence. Your choice of career should be intellectually stimulating, with just enough variety to keep you from getting bored; otherwise, a degree of restlessness will have you seeking greener pastures.

Mercury Semisquare Pluto (Prg-Nat) Jan 25, 2008

Circumstances are likely to occur in your life that may drastically alter your mental attitude. Perhaps you have been betrayed by your lover, or lost a beloved pet or close member of the family. Whatever the situation -- be it a disturbing sexual affair or grief through a death experience -- you may do a complete turnabout in your thinking process. New bosses or new equipment and techniques may be introduced into your work-related duties, disturbing and upsetting your established routine. Guard your health against mental stress and the tendency to overwork.

Mercury Conjunction Mars (Prg-Prg) Sep 29, 2008

Your mental attitude is highly stimulated and activated at this time. Being aware of this tendency can help you avoid the pitfalls of mental aggressiveness and impulsive behavior. Although you have the ability to grasp knowledge readily, you may lack patience with those who do not have the same capacity. You may jump to conclusions from time to time, completely misinterpreting statements made by others. This is not the time for hasty decisions, travel, or signing of important documents. If you can control this nervous energy, you can excel in mental competitiveness in business and in problem-solving. Keep yourself in check, and avoid arguments and strife with co-workers and close family ties.

Mercury Square Saturn (Prg-Prg) Feb 14, 2009

You are entering a rather restrictive period in which delays and hindrances are likely to affect personal progress. You will have to maintain a positive attitude at all times to keep from getting mentally depressed. If you bear in mind that this is just a temporary situation and will soon pass, you should be able to avoid any serious bouts of worry and frustration. You may experience some setbacks or delays in connection with important communications, messages, contracts, or negotiations. Shipments and orders are placed on hold or delayed for one reason or another. There may be difficulty in settling company contracts, resulting in a work stoppage or union strike. Safeguard your reputation and honor by upholding all verbal or written contracts, and any promises made to others. There may be heavy responsibilities and burdens placed upon your shoulders concerning an older member of the family. You may feel unloved, inhibited, and lonely due to limited social contacts. Improve circulation through exercise and long walks. Avoid colds, chills, and a tendency toward mental despondency. Look at the bright side and it'll soon be over.

Mercury Semisquare Pluto (Prg-Prg) May 17, 2009

Circumstances are likely to occur in your life that may drastically alter your mental attitude. Perhaps you have been betrayed by your lover, or lost a beloved pet or close member of the family. Whatever the situation -- be it a disturbing sexual affair or grief through a death experience -- you may do a complete turnabout in your thinking process. New bosses or new equipment and techniques may be introduced into your work-related duties, disturbing and upsetting your established routine. Guard your health against mental stress and the tendency to overwork.

Mars in Libra

The progressed position of Mars into the sign of Libra can stimulate and activate both social and public interests. Your impulsive nature may draw you into partnerships or close ties that are not conducive to your well-being. Once these impulsive attractions begin to wear off, you may find it difficult to break away from them. There will be times when your energies and your emotions will either work together or against each other, causing you to alternate between passivity and aggressiveness. This can be difficult to cope with, requiring true cooperativeness of the internal and external self. The men that may touch upon your life are likely to be very charming, gracious, well mannered, and of a professional background. Others may be married or experiencing problems with their ex-spouses.

Mars in the Tenth House

You are quite ambitious and independent, with boundless energy. You "chafe at the bit" when bosses try to restrict your freedom of movement, speech, or actions. For this reason, your career interests may be shifting, seeking new and challenging career opportunities that offer more flexibility in self-expression and personal decisions. In all likelihood you will be entering into a vocation that you have not encountered before. Working with mechanical objects, machinery, or tools may become part of your trade. There is the tendency to "overreact" toward rules, regulations, or demands made by your supervisor. Arguments, rifts, or misunderstandings can occur if you do not learn to control your actions. Men will play an important role in your vocational career, either assisting or hindering it.

Mars Square Saturn (Prg-Prg) Jun 7, 2009

A trying period of frustrations, hardship, and delays. Outbursts of temper and impulsive actions can result in resentment from others. Separation and break-up of close ties are possible. Avoid conflicts with bosses, government officials, and parents. There is the possibility of accidents or injuries to the bony structure of the body.

Mars Semisquare Pluto (Prg-Prg) Dec 2, 2009

You may feel a struggling conflict when trying to control the intense energy that rages within. You will have to guard against rash and hasty decisions or actions that can draw you into dangerous or violent situations. There appears to be a power struggle in which controlling (dictatorial) urges prevail. This may be initiated toward the sexual partner through acts of jealousy and possessiveness. Difficulties may arise through the handling of insurance settlements, income tax returns, alimony payments, and workers' compensation. Be selective of your sex partners, or use precautionary methods to avoid the possibility of a social disease.

There may be loss or separation of a close attachment or family member. Women should be wary of men who display a hot temper and jealous (possessive) tendencies. It will be extremely difficult to break off this relationship once it takes a firm hold.

Midheaven Semisquare Uranus (Prg-Nat) Oct 19, 2009

There is the possibility of upsetting changes, loss, or complete reversal of occupational duties. New bosses may change or alter your normal routine. There may be a sudden cutback in working hours or a change of shifts. Whatever the circumstances, they will be abrupt, sudden, and totally unexpected. You may rebel against authority or undue pressure to inhibit your independent spirit. Possible loss or separation from a parent, grandparent, boss, or other figure of authority.

Scorpio on the Eleventh Cusp

Friends have a way of disappearing. Just when you develop a close relationship with one, they move away or are transferred to another state. One particular friend will enter your life who will be quite possessive and demanding of your time and energy. Their determination to be a part of your social circle will make it difficult to rid yourself of them. You have the ability to sway and control masses of people. You will have a daughter- or son-in-law who will be very secretive and difficult to communicate with or understand.

Neptune in the Eleventh House

Your hopes and wishes are filled with noble aspirations and are generally for the benefit of mankind. There will be a psychic awareness or attunement of emotional bonding between yourself and another individual, an exchange of energy forces, or the mutual ability to read each other's minds. You tend to absorb the environmental conditions and situations of your friends and acquaintances; therefore, you must be careful not to permit those who are mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped to use you as a sounding board for their problems. The type of people who are likely to enter your life during this trend are musicians, artists, psychologists, nurses, psychics, and exceptionally talented individuals. Learn to recognize phonies or people who appear to live better than they really can. Do not be too gullible and trusting, for friends can easily turn into secret enemies. A daughter- or son-in-law may have been harboring a secret, require medication for a health problem, or have a child through a previous marriage.

Scorpio on the Twelfth Cusp

You are developing strong psychic and intuitive powers. You can greatly benefit through the study and research of occult subjects, mind control, or yoga. There is the possibility of hidden or unforeseen gains from insurance settlements, alimony, hospitalization, inheritance, and other joint resources. This sign is associated with work involving the medical field or investigative work.
