MAKING THE MOST OF OPPORTUNITIES

At various times in your life, you've probably had the feeling that the opportunities are available for exactly what you want to do. At other times, you've undoubtedly experienced the feeling that hardly anything is going right and that you can't find a satisfactory outlet for your capabilities.

By using the science of numerology, though, you can recognize the specific influences and opportunities in your life at any given time. You can determine—in advance—the times of greatest opportunity and you can also foresee difficulties and the areas in which they're likely to happen. Numerology doesn't give you the ability to foretell the future. It does, however, give you the ability to see and analyze many of the coming influences and opportunities before they occur. This allows you to maximize the positive potential as well as to prepare beforehand for problems that may be developing.

This profile describes the influences and opportunities you can expect in your life during the time span shown. The profile also includes suggestions for resolving any difficulties as well as for making the best use of the coming opportunities.

JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER 2002

A TIME TO RELAX AND ENJOY LIFE, TO EXPRESS YOUR CREATIVITY AND EXHILARATING ENTHUSIASM.

Your 3 Personal Year

The year 2002 may be a special, lighter year for you. It can be time to experience happiness and pleasure at its best and to express the exhilarating enthusiasm of the joy of living. It's a time, too, to expand and develop opportunities often involving your creative and imaginative talents. Coming, as it does, after the often slow-moving and frequently emotional 2001, this year sometimes seems to bring the best of exciting and fun-filled times.

If you're lucky enough not to be overburdened with responsibility in 2002, there'll be ample time to enjoy yourself and appreciate the cheerful and optimistic environment you find yourself in. Cultivate the society of some of your old friends and enjoy the many new friends you can make as well. Expect a very active social life. You'll probably have lots of invitations and a desire to organize social gatherings of your own. There may be some exciting romantic interludes. Enjoy travel during this year and enjoy the pleasures of art and beauty along the way. Have fun.

In particular, make time to enjoy your children this year, no matter what their age. If you especially like young children, you also may want to spend time with youngsters other than your own. You may want to plan expeditions to interesting museums, shows or concerts. Travel to some unusual places could prove a high point for all of you.

Keep your superficial and frivolous activities to a reasonable minimum. Enjoy the happiness that comes your way but recognize that self-indulgence or extravagance may get in the way of some of the deeper pleasures available to you. Don't lose sight of money matters with all the activity that's going on.

Some of your ventures from the last two years may begin to flower or reach constructive conclusions in 2002. Develop both the new opportunities that come your way and your older ventures—as far as they can go. Place considerable emphasis on your creative talents. Make use of the imaginative and inspirational aspects of your character. Look for possibilities for advancement, recognition and perhaps much-improved finances. Emphasize creative projects involving words—writing, lecturing, singing or acting, among others. Spend time improving your appearance. You may enjoy shopping for new or special outfits or take pleasure in improving your physical fitness and the appearance of your hair, skin and nails. This is also a good year to move to a new residence.

Take care not to scatter your energies recklessly. Try to complete one project before starting another. Although there's much in the way of exciting social life, make sure not to neglect your various ongoing ventures—and your new projects, too—so that you can end the year with feelings of satisfaction and accomplishment.

2002 can be an exceptionally joyous year. Make the most of it. Try not to waste your energy or resources. Keep your worrying to a minimum. Stay away from gossips. Avoid blaming others and enjoy other people's good fortune rather than being jealous.

Handle your emotions carefully and constructively. Stress optimism, cheerfulness and enthusiasm in all your activities. Make the most of others' delight and spread your own contagious joy and vitality at every turn.

Special Focus For This Year

The year 2002 marks a period during which you can develop your creative, inspirational or imaginative ideas. Look for opportunities to use your special abilities and work toward substantial accomplishments and possibly financial rewards as well. When you can combine your executive skills and leadership talent with the kind of exciting career possibilities that may occur this year, you may be able to increase your status and improve your reputation. Your charisma may have a special impact at this time. Some of the projects that you have been working on during the last few years may expand and develop in new and exciting directions in 2002, partly because of new and often dramatic influences and partly because of the dynamic nature of your commitment.

Be very careful how you express your feelings. Be as honest and open as you can. Don't emphasize your power or ability to dominate situations. This is likely to rub people the wrong way. Emphasize your optimism and enthusiasm, along with your spirit of camaraderie. Turn people on with your dynamic spirit and sense of fun and delight. Enjoy an active social life. Make special time for your old friends and some of the exciting new friends you meet, too. If you have the time, you may enjoy traveling to some offbeat places.

Your 3 Essence

January 1 through December 31

While the above described Personal Year indicates the best approach for you to take for growth and development during 2002, the Essence points out the likely events to take place during the period that it is active. Knowing the probable events that will happen and the preferred approach to those events will help you to get the most out of your experiences.

The events and opportunities at this time emphasize creative self-expression and the joy of living. This is an excellent time to produce creative works that involve writing, singing or acting. You may also find yourself speaking in front of groups. This is a good period to advance your creative talents through further study or classes, or possibly by starting or expanding a business venture that involves a creative endeavor. You'll also find yourself making new friends and renewing old relationships, perhaps even engaging in a love affair. Expand your social activities and be prepared to travel.

Be especially sure to express your emotions honestly at this time. Disguised or repressed feelings are only likely to hold you back. Express optimism and enthusiasm to open doors, while avoiding pessimism and a critical attitude which can block your opportunities. This is an especially important time to exhibit strong self-discipline, otherwise you'll find that you waste a considerable amount of energy in frivolous and superficial activities. If you don't keep your restlessness in check, you'll feel even more frustrated from your lack of pleasure or accomplishment.

Monthly Highlights For 2002

The Personal Year is an important yearly influence. This influence, though, is expressed with a somewhat different emphasis each month. Be sure to take the monthly emphasis into account, too, when considering the best approach to take to each month's events. Monthly highlights for 2002 are given next, followed by detailed descriptions for each month.

Make the most of the exciting project opportunities in February. In March, spend time with special friends and possibly the people in your family with whom you are close. Be prepared for some strong expressions of emotion in June but try to keep your relations intact. Some friendly social affairs are probable in August and some exciting gatherings in September. Dynamic social or business activity is due in November. A festive and cheerful holiday can be expected in December.

Your 9 Personal Month

Some matters may be reaching a conclusion this month. You may, for example, complete the preparations for some creative venture to make ready for new or expanded work. A business affair on which you've been working may end at this time. A friendship or association may terminate as well, possibly around June 9th or 18th. In all these situations, expend the effort to keep your feelings—and other peoples' feelings—under control. Emphasize understanding, tolerance and compassion. When matters are ending, try to let go of them in a positive spirit. When a conclusion takes place, even when you previously fought against it, look for a new freedom that you wouldn't have expected. Later in June, sometime around the 24th, you may find yourself involved with some romantic interludes. Although you may gain some satisfaction, the relationship probably will fade quickly. With the month drawing to a close, you're likely to feel an invigorating sense of release and anticipation.

JULY 2002

Your 1 Personal Month

A feeling of verve and enthusiasm is likely throughout much of the month. The feeling that you have to wait for the right time is completely gone. It's full speed ahead now. The throttle is wide open. New opportunities may open up around July 7th or so. They'll continue or expand the progress of some of the activities you've been developing for the last six months. Longtime friends may help create promising potential sometime around July 9th. Friends you've met during the last few weeks also may be instrumental in pushing matters forward on July 13th or thereabouts. Exploit your creative talent, imaginative approach and verbal skills to maximize your possibilities. Radiate an electric sense of joy and optimism wherever you are. Take advantage of the many delightful social activities that come your way. But be careful to keep your energies focused. If you act too impulsively, you may not consider all the possibilities.

AUGUST 2002

Your 11/2 Personal Month

Expect a good deal of activity in August. The ventures begun in July may continue through August 9th or so, then slow down or be held up briefly, probably until at least August 17th. Use some of your unexpected free time and creative input to cooperate with friends or colleagues who need help with their own ventures. The good will that follows will stand you in good stead when you need assistance down the line. Be very sensitive to others' needs and feelings throughout the month. If you or your colleagues prove oversensitive, it may impede your progress. Throughout August, try to spread the delight you feel and, if you can, help friends and associates lighten the load they're carrying. If you've gained some spiritual insight recently, this month may be a good time to share it. Enjoy the love and romance that comes your way, particularly around August 22nd or 27th. Enjoy the time you spend with your children, too.

SEPTEMBER 2002

Your 3 Personal Month

September probably will be a very exciting time filled with an ongoing social life and many expanding ventures. Enjoy new friends and renew the acquaintance of some longtime friends you haven't seen in a while. Take advantage of the many parties, entertainment and other get-togethers. Spend time enjoying music, art, plays and the like. Be ready to travel on a moment's notice, possibly to out-of-the-way places, possibly on September 2nd or 11th. Look for new and unusual opportunities to expand your horizons in unexpected directions on any trips you make. Keep on top of your ongoing projects as they move ahead at a sprightly pace. There'll be many chances this month, particularly around September 18th or so, to develop your creative side as well as your verbal skills. Concentrate on developing your expressive powers. Explore singing or acting, writing or any related fields that come to your attention. Focus on significant activities, so that you don't scatter yourself over too large an area.

OCTOBER 2002

Your 4 Personal Month

There may be a good deal of social life and some interesting creative opportunities available this month. Your interests will be far better served, though, if you concentrate a considerable part of your energy in solidifying the progress you've made so far this year. Take care of all the details and loose ends. Strengthen some of the weak areas that previously have been neglected, possibly starting on October 13th or so. Begin or, if possible, complete the foundations that are necessary before some of your significant ventures can move ahead. Set projects up so that they can proceed comfortably next year. Keep your finances clearly in mind, particularly on or about October 18th. Make time at regular intervals to take a break from what on occasion may be a heavy work load. Try to spread the joy and delight you're feeling so that everyone around you feels optimistic and enthusiastic. Go to a party or give one—sometime around October 19th or 28th.

NOVEMBER 2002

Your 5 Personal Month

There may be as much opportunity for excitement, travel, adventure and creative advancement in November as any time this year. There also will be no end of exhilarating social activities throughout the month. After the work accomplished in October, you may feel restless and impulsive. Proceed with a considerable measure of self-discipline. About November 9th or 16th, focus on new and progressive opportunities that can be developed in the new year. If you recognize new interests that appeal to you, particularly around November 18, try to organize them so that most of the work will take place a few months down the line. Enjoy some socializing but keep a sense of proportion. Allow enough time to continue any of the work started in October or any additional work needed on ongoing ventures. If you forgo some of the excitement around you and take care of the work, you'll be in a much better place when the new year gets under way.

DECEMBER 2002

Your 6 Personal Month

The merriment, joy and enthusiasm you'll experience in December generally will center around your home, family and close friends. This can be an extremely satisfying time, with many feelings of closeness and happiness within your immediate family circle. Try to devote a good deal of time to your children this month, particularly around December 5th or 21st. Enjoy the pleasure of romance with your spouse or lover, particularly on December 18th or so. The more affection and love you give this month, the more you'll find returned. In addition to the holiday activity, you'll also have to concentrate on the responsibilities of domestic life during part of the month. Be prepared to take care of some significant family need on or about December 27th. It may even be necessary to put others' needs—perhaps those of the young, elderly or infirm—before your own. As the month—and year—reach their conclusion, you may get some sense of the serious and practical nature of much of the activity during the coming year.

As 2002 draws to a close, your creative approach is likely to move your ongoing endeavors along and help you ferret out new opportunities with good potential. The active social life that you've experienced throughout the year continues. Enjoy the small get-togethers and lavish parties. Be on the lookout for new and exciting friends.

JANUARY THROUGH DECEMBER 2003

A TIME OF MARKED ACHIEVEMENT AND MAJOR UNDERTAKINGS. A TIME TO WORK FOR THE BENEFIT OF OTHERS.

Your 22/4 Personal Year

The year 2003 can be a time of marked achievement. You can make progress on ventures with the potential for a significant broad influence, especially if your work will benefit others. When you choose to move forward on enterprises of this magnitude, you can expect a strong and profound impact on your life.

Approach these high-level endeavors only if you're feeling mature, idealistic and extremely capable. In order to be able even to start out, you will need a significant power potential and a strong desire to contribute to the general advancement of humanity. If your sole purpose is personal financial gain or improvement in your own status or reputation, this will tend to hamper your efforts. If you can operate from a selfless point of view, you may achieve considerable fame and fortune—but most likely only if they're not your primary goals. Recognize that the work you set out to do in most instances will take much longer than a single year. Be prepared to maintain your ideals until your venture reaches completion. Be prepared to deal with a heightened level of nervous tension, too, at least part of the time.

If you feel qualified, this is the year to move forward with all the energy at your command. This is your chance to begin making your significant contribution to the world.

If, on the other hand, you're still developing your skills to reach a high potential, it may be more useful for you to turn your attention to some of the ongoing material ventures you've been working on for the last few years—and help move them along. Accept the workload you find and prepare to meet your obligations. Be practical, rational and businesslike to achieve the best results. The schedules you have to meet are likely to be tight and the pressure of the work likely to be more than you find completely comfortable. Complete the work, though, so that it doesn't come back to bother you at a less opportune time. You'll receive considerable satisfaction as you reach the conclusions of your various tasks.

Be prepared to stabilize any shaky ventures and establish secure bases for future development. Take care of the details and clean up all the loose ends that have been around too long. Start or continue to build firm foundations for enterprises that are likely to be around for a number of years. If your progress is sometimes slow, remember that the work is important and keep at it.

Be economical in financial matters. Make sure you establish good business foundations for the future, too. If you aren't interested in keeping watch on monetary affairs and attempt to bypass this responsibility, you may have cause to regret this down the line. Take care of any buying, selling or trading. Oversee building or remodeling, as well. Be sure to handle agreements, contracts and other legal matters with care. Don't look to luck to help you out at this time.

No matter what you're working on in 2003, make sure you understand the purpose of the work and your specific role in the venture. Don't spend time—even a short period—if you feel you're in a rut or feel that you're not going to make any progress. Figure out how to restructure the work in which you're engaged or how to get a clearer or different point of view so that your ongoing pursuits become meaningful. When you feel any sense of tension because of the workload, take some short breaks to relieve the pressure. Rest, play, exercise or meditate to remain calm.

Special Focus For This Year

2003 may be your time to tackle some very significant ventures if you feel a lot of energy and power. Your leadership skills are usually very apparent. Recognize your creative ideas and be ready to put them to good use. Use your independent manner to open new areas for development. Maintain your executive skills in resolving problems to achieve the results you want.

Evaluate the several paths you can take in your attempt to reach meaningful achievement. You can go it alone so that you don't have to take coworkers' needs into account—or you can become more aware and sensitive of associates' needs in order to build a viable team. If these paths still need development, in 2003 you may choose to work at building the needed foundations or organizing the work involved in your ongoing enterprises. In any case, there'll be a great deal of work for you to do, often with tight deadlines and considerable pressure. Be careful not to get bogged down in meaningless detail. Schedule periodic breaks to take brief vacations. Maintain a rigorous fitness program.

Your 3 Essence

January 1 through December 31

Your Essence during this period is the same as the one described for last year. Expect the same kinds of events and opportunities to occur as you have already been experiencing. Make sure, though, to use the approach of the new Personal Year as you encounter the events that unfold at this time.

Because your Essence for this period points in a very different direction than the Personal Year, you may find that things do not go as easily or as smoothly as you'd like. Your desire for creative self-expression and social activities at this time conflicts with your potential for substantial material achievement. You may spend a good part of the time struggling to find a comfortable balance. It's possible, too, that you may try to avoid one of these energies all together. You'll find, though, that it resurfaces no matter what you do. Sometimes a balance can be reached by alternately using one energy, then the other. If at all possible, try to find an approach to the events and opportunities during this period that allows both energies to work together. This isn't always easy, but it can provide the best use of the potentials available.

Monthly Highlights For 2003

Examine the exciting opportunities you find in January and determine whether you want to tackle any of the enterprises you see. Financial advances in April may take care of an economic problem or open the door to an important advance. Your leadership potential may play a vital role during June. In July, be particularly sensitive to everyone's feelings to avoid misunderstandings. The right move in September may allow considerable progress. Take time for travel in October but don't lose sight of your goals.

JANUARY 2003

Your 5 Personal Month

Be prepared for a lot of activity and excitement as 2003 gets under way. Expect a good deal of social activity and perhaps some romance. Spend time with your friends but limit your socializing, if necessary, so you have enough time to investigate the many new possibilities that come your way. Some new input is likely to help move your ongoing ventures ahead during the week of January 7th. Between January 17th and 26th, some sparkling new opportunities are likely to come to your attention, with what appear to be significant influence and dynamic potential. Carefully investigate the projects before you. Make sure you can carry out the tasks involved. Move ahead only when you've established to your own satisfaction that the promised potential has a reasonable chance of developing. Don't be surprised if these ventures point in new directions or involve an unusual spiritual emphasis. Take on only as much as you can handle comfortably.

FEBRUARY 2003

Your 6 Personal Month

Although you're anxious to make progress on your new and long-term endeavors, a number of interruptions keep getting in your way this month. Around February 3rd or 9th, domestic matters that need immediate attention crop up. Some quarrels or misunderstandings—possibly in regard to a romantic interest—must be resolved, too, particularly on or around February 12th. Legal, tax or insurance affairs related to your home or other family property also must be taken care of. Important family get-togethers are likely to require your attendance as well as your help in preparation during the weeks of February 14th or 23rd. Be very patient and keep your feelings under control. Try to avoid being resentful. Recognize that some of your relatives have an interest in you as well as the ability to open important doors. Although it may appear that you're marking time throughout much of February, a few subtle actions—probably initiated by relatives or close friends—are apt to add up to substantial forward movement.

MARCH 2003

Your 7 Personal Month

You have lots of matters to work on in March. You may want to spend a good part of the month on your own. Make sure, though, that your colleagues and friends are aware that you need the solitude so that they don't feel annoyed or ignored. Be sure to allow the time necessary, possibly during the weeks of March 8th or 22nd, to maintain the closeness of your relationships. During the time you have by yourself between March 3rd and 18th, contemplate your options and develop your plans for the rest of the year. In particular, study or research an important idealistic venture that you've been considering. Make preparations to launch your efforts on this project sometime in April. Also expend some of your effort to set up a regular exercise or meditation program, to give you the kind of relaxation you'll need to go along with the heavy work schedule you're likely to be carrying. March 27th may be a good time to get a general health checkup.

APRIL 2003

Your 8 Personal Month

In April, strong forward strides in several directions are possible. Your ongoing business enterprises should advance around April 9th, although a good deal of organization work probably will be required to move things along. Take care of the financial matters that come to your attention, particularly if they're likely to open doors in the near future. If you completed plans last month to get an especially significant venture moving, prepare to launch that new enterprise at the favorable moment this month, most likely during the weeks of April 14th or 23rd. Complete the required contracts, agreements and other legal matters by April 29th. If the venture involves humanitarian causes, be ready to devote an amount of your current effort to making a strong start. Don't be surprised if you have to take time from personal affairs to do the work properly.

MAY 2003

Your 9 Personal Month

An enterprise or a phase of work may conclude during the week of May 6th. You also may reach a parting of the ways with a colleague or friend between May 9th and 15th. Either or both of these endings are likely to give you a good deal of freedom you hadn't anticipated by removing some restrictive tendencies. Handle these matters—and the other situations you're dealing with this month—with extreme sensitivity. Chances are you'll have to face a considerable amount of emotion. Take precautions to keep matters on an even keel, particularly between May 18th and the end of the month. Express your feelings as clearly as you can and help others do the same. If a misunderstanding occurs, clear communication on both sides will be helpful in preventing damage to a friendship. Keep your important enterprises moving ahead despite all this distracting activity. Take time, too, to maintain your close relationships. Handle romantic matters with great delicacy.

A LAST WORD

The information contained in this profile can be remarkably helpful. Read it once or twice when you first receive it. Read it again when important opportunities come your way. You may learn, as many people have, to benefit by making the most of the described possibilities by preparing beforehand.

Read the profile, too, when you feel stuck. You may benefit by figuring out how to deal with the difficulties in a better way. If you see a problem coming, a re-reading may show you how to prepare for that problem before it actually occurs. You may be surprised and delighted at the many times that the information in the profile contributes significantly to your life.
